

Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Protest Form

We are committed to making Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series a pleasant and fair racing experience. If you feel another competitor is in violation of the rules we ask that you submit a formal protest form stating the Drivers name, Car number, Protested rule infraction in full detail along with a protest fee of $250. If the officials and driver techs rule in favor of the protester the protestor will have $125 of his protest fee returned and the additional $125 will go to Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series point fund, If the official and driver techs rule in favor the competitor being protested the competitor being protested will receive $125 and the additional $125 will go to the Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series point fund. A protester will be allowed to submit a maximum of 2 protest per race season. Once the Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series officials received an official protest the Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series officials and tech drivers for that event will inform the competitor of the questioned car of the protest and item protested, once protested the driver will voluntarily grant access to inspect the protested infraction, the competitor and one crew member being protested will be required to assist to gain access to the protested infraction without impeding inspection of the protested item being inspected by the Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series officials and tech drivers for that event. A refusal to grant access to inspect will be considered a failed protest. The protestor is to maintain 100' distance from inspection and at no time will be part of the final ruling, The only item and area of the car to be inspected as part of the protest will be the protested item. Tri-State Pro Stock Challenge Series official's decision and potential penalty if final. Protest form must be submitted within 15mins. of A-Main event checkered flag to a Tri-state Pro Stock official for protest to be valid at that event.
